

Computer Use Policy

Everyone who uses the library computers must read and follow the rules; if you do not follow the rules as stated below, you will lose your privileges.

Any misuse of the computers may be reported to the library director.

Weller Public Library Computer Use Rules:

1. Absolutely no inappropriate adult web sites are to be accessed from these computers.
2. I will behave in a manner respectful of others when using or waiting to use the computers at Weller Public Library.
3. I will not use the computers at Weller Public Library to harass, demean, or embarrass anyone.
4. I will not use the computers to misrepresent myself in any way.

I understand that if I misuse the computers at Weller Public Library in any way I will lose my privilege to use the computers.